INFORMATION

DRY SEASON – OCTOBER- JANUARY

These months are much cooler where the temperature is around 73°F. There is very little rain and humidity during these months which makes it a great time to visit the beaches. Things to pack while visiting during the dry season include sandals, shorts, capris, teeshirts, and tanks. Don't pack too much warm clothing, you will be fine with just 1-2 pairs of pants and long-sleeved shirts or light sweaters. Also, don't forget a hat, sunglasses, and sunscreen. Temperatures average between 73°F to 82°F (23°C to 28°C)

Local Tours

- Swimming in Atlantic ocean
- Boat Tours
- Kakum National Park
- Bojo Beach
- Kwame Nkrumah Museoleum
- Nkyimkyim Museum
- Monkey Sancturary
- Cape Coast Castle

FAQ ABOUT TRAVEL IN GHANA

- 1. Is it safe to visit Ghana?

Compared to other African countries, Ghana is a very safe. Just stick with the group and follow directions and you will be fine.

- 2. Do I need a visa?

YES

- 3. Do I need vaccinations?

Common vaccinations required for a trip to Ghana are hepatitis A, hepatitis B, rabies and typhoid, diphtheria, polio, measles, and yellow fever. It is best to consult with a doctor for vaccinations that you will need specific to this trip

- 4. Can I drink tap water?

No, you can only drink boiled or bottled water we will provide you.

- 5. Is English spoken in Ghana?

Yes, Ghana's two official languages are English and Twi

- 6. What currency is used in Ghana?

The Ghanaian Cedi is used as currency although, many businesses will also take USD. We will help with the dollar exchange at the local bank

- 7. How much money should I bring?

Ghana is a fairly expensive country. On a low budget, expect to pay around $50/day. For Midrange to high budgets, $100-$250 a day is the norm.

- 8. Where are the best places to see wildlife?

In Ghana, there is an abundance of wildlife. Mostly in the volta region and northern parts.

- 9. Are we going on a special safari?

Safaris are typically an additional $1,000 for an all-inclusive 30 hr experience. To keep the trip budget-friendly, we focus on smaller, more accessible local attractions. However, if you're interested in a grand safari adventure, we'd be happy to help arrange this for you at your request.

- 10. What else is there to do in Ghana besides safari?

Hike Mount Afadjato, relax on Ghana's beautiful coastal sandy beaches, and try out the local cuisine!

DISCLOSURES

Dear Dreamers Wish Foundation Changemaker,

Congratulations on being selected to participate in our upcoming tour in Ghana! We are excited to have you join us on this special journey. As we prepare for the tour, we would like to provide you with important information and disclosures to ensure a memorable and fulfilling travel experience. Please carefully read and acknowledge the following details:

1. Itinerary and Activities:

- Our tour itinerary has been thoughtfully crafted to fulfill the dreams and wishes of our participants. Please note that while we strive to adhere to the planned itinerary, unforeseen circumstances or events may require adjustments. We appreciate your understanding and flexibility in such situations.

2. Health and Fitness Requirements:

- Some tour activities may involve physical exertion, such as walking, hiking, or participating in adventure sports. It is important that participants are in good health and have a reasonable level of fitness to fully enjoy the tour. If you have any concerns regarding your physical abilities or medical conditions, please inform us prior to the tour so that we can provide appropriate guidance and make necessary arrangements.

3. Travel Documentation:

- It is the responsibility of each participant to ensure they possess valid travel documents, including passports, visas, and any other required permits, for the duration of the tour. We recommend verifying your travel documentation well in advance of the tour departure date and notifying us immediately if any issues arise.

4. Travel Insurance:

- Dreamers Wish Foundation strongly advises all participants to obtain comprehensive travel insurance that covers trip cancellation, medical expenses, emergency evacuation, and personal liability. It is your responsibility to arrange appropriate insurance coverage, and we may request proof of insurance prior to the tour.

DISCLOSURES

5. Personal Belongings:

- Participants are responsible for their personal belongings throughout the tour. We recommend keeping valuables secure and not leaving them unattended. Dreamers Wish Foundation cannot be held liable for any loss, theft, or damage to personal belongings during the tour.

6. Code of Conduct:

- We expect all participants to adhere to a code of conduct that promotes respect for fellow travelers, tour guides, local communities, and the environment. Any behavior that disrupts the tour experience or violates local laws and customs will not be tolerated.

7. Safety and Security:

- Your safety is our utmost priority. We work closely with experienced tour operators and service providers to ensure your safety during the tour. However, it is important to remain vigilant and follow the guidance of our tour staff at all times.

8. Assumption of Risk:

- By participating in the tour, you acknowledge and accept that travel involves inherent risks, including but not limited to accidents, illnesses, injuries, and unforeseen events. You voluntarily assume all risks associated with the tour and release Dreamers Wish Foundation, its representatives, and tour guides from any liability arising from such risks.

Please review this travel trip disclosure thoroughly and sign the acknowledgement form attached in your email separately. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact our team. We are committed to making your travel experience unforgettable and fulfilling.

With warm regards,

Your Dreamers Wish Foundation Team
